

JANUARY 2010

Pony Club: Just wanted to give you a heads up that I have a bunch of Pony Clubbers coming for a lesson on Saturday January 23. It will be most of the day with an hour lunch break. As the schedule gets confirmed, I will send out the exact times. The ring will be open to boarders and I will most likely be in the outdoor for the jumps. Just wanted to give you some notice so that you can all plan! There will also be another Pony Club meeting Feb. 27th.

Donida Dressage Show: Donida dressage schooling show is coming up Feb. 13th. I am definitely going to this show riding both Vinnie and Magnum. I plan to go down the day before to hack around the property and rent an overnight stall. This show usually has many entries, so please send your entry next week to make sure that you get in. I am willing to catch ride some of the young horses in the barn as long as their owners go with and do the grooming and prep. Please let me know who is interested.

Upcoming Schooling Shows: The March show date is not up on Donida's website, but if they schedule one... I will probably go to that one too! If not, then plan to go to Gold Creek in March. The combined test show is scheduled for April 3 at Donida and if Happs has their derby, that might be another show to enter too.

Saturday Lessons: Please be aware that I will not be teaching Saturday lessons at the farm if I'm at these schooling shows. Some of you have been relying on Saturdays to get your lessons in. You will need to re-schedule for a weekday. True, you will get help at the horse show if you decide to come, but you will definitely want a lesson before hand to get ready for the show!

Tulip Springs X-C Camp: Mark your calendars! I have booked out Tulip Springs for X-C camp April 16-18th. Last year it was such a success to build confidence and hone skills for the show season. The whole weekend is nothing but cross country riding on the sunny side of the state!
